CAVALIO

COLLECTION

The Cavalio luxury vinyl flooring collection has been developed to harmonise the demands of contemporary living with exceptional design. The collection features beautiful high quality, low maintenance floor coverings, ideal for use in every room in your home.

Luxury vinyl tiles are created using the application of stone and wood effect photographic film to tiles and planks, to authentically reproduce the natural grains of wood and the enchanting characteristics of stone. Every Cavalio flooring tile has a tough polyurethane wear layer coating making them highly durable and easy to clean. Your floor will look and feel authentic making Cavalio luxury vinyl tiles an excellent alternative to other types of floor covering.

Cavalio has two inspiring ranges, Conceptline and Projectline. Both ranges have been developed to meet the individual performance and design requirements for your home.

Conceptline can transform any space in your home; the range presents a wide variety of textures and tones to compliment every décor.

The Projectline range provides the most superior durability of the collection, and is perfect for a high traffic area that requires additional strength.

Did you know?

- *Conceptline & Projectline come with a 10 year guarantee anywhere in your home

- We offer a free samples service (see page 38)

- Our collection has numerous different tile sizes and plank widths to suit any project

- Cavalio floors can be laid in multiple designs with an assortment of inlay accessories allowing you to personalise your floor.

when installed by a professional floor layer*

The inspiring range contains twenty wood and ten stone designs, each one created to be the perfect backdrop to suit any home and lifestyle. The performance and design properties of the Conceptline range have been carefully tailored to balance practicality with flooring that is both stunning and versatile.

Conceptline can be used in any room of your home, whether it's a tranquil relaxing space, or a busy bustling area. The strong polyurethane protective layer ensures your floor is both attractive and practical.

CONCEPTLINE[®]
DESIGN COLLECTION

Conceptline can be used in any room of your home,

Conceptline tiles authentically replicate the elegant characteristics of stone whilst providing an easy to clean surface that is also comfortable underfoot. And what's more, Conceptline and all Cavalio ranges are suitable for use with under floor heating. These features make Conceptline an ideal choice for a bathroom.

Metalstone beige tiles bring an understated elegance to this minimalist bathroom. The subtle metallic shimmer and straight laid design scheme give this room a luxurious finish, perfect for relaxing after a long days work. Imagine stepping out of the bath onto a comfortable warm surface that is easy to maintain.

always leaving a lasting impression.

The authentic wood shades of the Conceptline range are the ideal accompaniment to all decors and styles. Whether you are looking for a contemporary, traditional or high design finish there is a plank to meet your needs.

A bedroom is a room that should be reserved for tranquillity and respite. It is important to find a décor that is your personal haven that allows you to feel comfortable and relaxed. The classic oak plank in this bedroom creates a stylish but cosy atmosphere.

The warmth of the wood grain balances with the soft brown palette giving the room effortless sophistication. The neutral shades of the bed linen are instantly lifted by the rich tones of the oak creating a soothing space that is perfect for resting.

Dynamic flooring, for small meeting rooms or impromptu work spaces

The beauty of Conceptline is that the range is wonderfully versatile. The floor is easy to maintain so it is great for laid back lazy days, but has also been built to meet the demands of busy lifestyles.

Conceptline is the perfect choice for light commercial areas

Conceptline is the perfect choice for multiple light commercial areas. The range has dynamic performance properties, so can be used for impromptu work spaces, individual offices and lightly used meeting rooms. The variety of designs in the range, 20 wood and 10 stone effects, allow for a huge choice of floors to match with your interior design ideas.

Floors to enjoy together

Wenge is a classically beautiful plank, bringing a touch of elegance that enhances the sophisticated colour scheme of this bedroom.

Conceptline is perfect for bedrooms, the darker tones in the range help to create an intimate atmosphere whilst the light shades can make a smaller space seem larger. There is a colour selection to suit every mood and capture your design visions.

that enhance the beauty of every room in your home

Living rooms are the centre of activity for entertaining, relaxing and creating first impressions on visitors to your home. Conceptline provides practicality alongside design; any tile or plank you choose from the range can not only provide a durable backdrop to all the action but is also an attractive design feature.

The intense tones of Rustic Oak, dark bring the unique features of this living room to life. The single plank perimeter highlights the beautiful characteristics of the stone fireplace offsetting the high design scheme of the room. The dark floor complements the statement curtains and bold purple cushions balance the contrast of colours. The textures woven across every inch of this stunning dark floor authentically replicate the natural grains of real wood.

Cavalio luxury vinyl tiles are adaptable to your design needs

The carefully selected portfolio of shades in the Conceptline collection can be laid together for a breath taking effect. Stones and woods can be perfectly harmonised to give your space a stunning original finish that feels personal to your home.

Using a combination of Rustic Oak, natural and Limed Stone, light this kitchen has been boldly designed. The daring combination of natural effects contrasts with the metallic oven hood and wooden work tops, giving the space a striking contemporary edge.

All the tiles across the Cavalio ranges can be laid in various formations and patterns, to create beautiful designs. A room can instantly be transformed by simply laying your chosen floor in a fascinating pattern. There are floor layouts that can be designed to emphasise your favourite features in your home, or you may want a formation that is original to suit a unique room. Conceptline is an extremely versatile range and can be adapted for any project, any size.

The stylish Washed Oak plank connects and accentuates all the main features of this minimalist landing. The weathered metal staircase and chevron upholstered chair are offset beautifully by the neutral walls and the authentically replicated ripples of wood grain in the floor. The overall effect of the combination of worn textures and herringbone design is a rustic look that is simple but eye catching. More inspirational ideas and further information about design floors is available on page 36.

1942 Driftwood, grey

The Projectline Collection is designed specifically for residential interiors and heavy use commercial properties

The range features a brilliant variety of textured stone and wood effects, engineered to include a heavy-duty protective layer. Projectline is ideal for covering large spaces with flooring that is both durable and extremely stylish.

The outstanding finish of every floor in the range is guaranteed to leave a lasting impression.

PROJECTLINE[®]
DESIGN COLLECTION

Strength and stability without compromise on style

Limed Oak, light is an ideal choice for a bright and spotless finish. The lighter tones of the wood make any space look and feel bigger. Projectline is also a great choice as the high performance properties and easy to clean maintenance regime will ensure your floor stays beautiful for longer.

Create an inviting space

Projectline is a distinctive range that combines creativity with quality to bring you an attractive but durable floor covering.

The rich tones of Rustic Cherry, give this bistro an elegant and luxurious finish. The warmth of the grains and knots in the plank complement the olive green accessories and wooden tables creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Transform any space using a statement floor from the Projectline range

Making an interior design statement is all about being bold and imaginative.

The contemporary design of Limed Oak, grey adds an urban statement finish to any décor.

Cool grey tones contrasted with bold colours can create a beautiful but edgy effect that will never go un-noticed.
