WOOD

Gauge 2.0mm

With 16 exquisite wood effects, the Conceptline collection offers full versatility and diversity. The range presents a balanced mix of classic and contemporary designs to reflect the natural beauty of timber.

The warm tones of the Fruit Woods and Classic Oaks are counterbalanced by the cool and neutral base colours of the more rustic designs, whereas the parquet effects of the stripwoods offer another alternative with a more structured & linear decoration.

The authentic replication of naturally occurring knots and unpredictable colour variations are further supported by the realism of the surface textures, to help bring the products to life.

As with the Conceptline Wood collection, Projectline presents a range of beautifully selected timbers. With the added benefit of a premium wear layer, the range is ideally suited to heavy commercial interiors, where we have introduced larger plank sizes, as seen in the oversized Rustic Pine designs.

The classic decoration of Oak is perfectly represented in a number of the woods, ranging in tone and effect, sitting alongside the more age worn Rustic & Limed timbers. To complete this exciting palette, we introduce the almost metallic effects of the Contour Woods. Offering a graphite-styled colour, the emphasised linear decoration brings an added contemporary quality to the range.
